How has participating in high school athletics benefited you? High school athletics have taught me very important life lessons such as humility, discipline, and work ethic that I will use in life forever.

What made you decide to play the sport for which you were named the Penn Station Athlete of the Month? My father got me into wrestling at a young age. I continued to wrestle, because I loved the individualism and all the aspects of wrestling.

Quote from Athletic Director: "Outstanding and humble student athlete whose recognition has been earned and rightly justified." -Joe Vogelgesang, Athletic Director

Quote from Principal: "In over 35 years of educational experience, Mason Parris is one of the finest examples of a student/athlete I have had the pleasure of knowing. He has a tremendous attitude, work ethic and academic drive." -Bill Snyder, Principal
