How has participating in high school athletics benefited you? High school athletics have taught me internal discipline and time management, as well as the value of working together as a team.

What made you decide to play the sport for which you were named the Penn Station Athlete of the Month? I started playing football when I was nine years old and still trying different sports. I stuck with it because it was a lot of fun and I was pretty good at it.

Quote from Athletic Director: Bobby has been outstanding for our program and school. He has held a 4.0 GPA for 4 years and a 4-year starter on varsity football. Great kid, better PIRATE!!

Quote from Principal: Bobby Bailey has represented Pattonville in a positive way, both on the field and in the classroom. He is a model student/athlete who embodies the true sense of what it means to be a "pirate."
