Student Athlete SCORES May Penn Station Award

DAYTON, Ohio May 4, 2010– He kicks to the left. He kicks to the right. SCORE! Alex Fiehrer has just won the Penn Station Athlete of the Month award! Recognized for his amazing footwork and soccer ability, Alex is the last athlete winner for the 2009-10 school year. Beyond the field, Alex is a highly achieved student with a grade point average of 3.8 at Archbishop Alter High School. He aspires to attend college after graduation and major in Actuarial Science.

Alex considers his greatest achievement starting in the State Finals soccer game as a sophomore. Alex also participates as a member of the National Honor Society, Optimist Club, Science Olympiad, and the Spanish Club. Principal, Nicki Brainard says, "Alex has a great deal of potential. He will surely continue to be successful even beyond his experiences here at Alter." Alex anticipates graduation in June 2010.

In honor of Alex's achievement as Athlete of the Month, Penn Station will reward him with gifts, including a $500 grant towards the Archbishop Alter High School. His picture will be hung in Penn Station restaurants. He will receive personalized coupons for the entire student body, and he will be in the running towards a $5,000 college scholarship to be awarded on May 20, 2010.

Almost 12 years ago, Penn Station launched the "Athlete of the Month" program to showcase the extraordinary student athletes in Dayton. Since then, Penn Station East Coast Subs has awarded nearly $100,000 in award money and college scholarships. Ninety-five students have received "Athlete of the Month" recognition and eleven have been awarded $5,000 college scholarships. "We are proud to add Alex to our list of winners and are honored to be a part of his future," says John Dorger, Managing Owner of Penn Station Dayton.
