

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Penn Station's Athlete of the Year - December 2016 Finalist

LOUISVILLE (December 7 ,2016) -

We are delighted to announce our December Athlete of the Year Finalist, Kris Cambron, a senior athlete at Eastern High School. Kris is recognized for his dedication to Football. During the past seven years he has played, Kris has learned to become a leader.

Athletic Director, Matt Girardin, says, "Kris plays the game the way the game was meant to be played - with great effort, enthusiasm, and sportsmanship. Kris is an excellent ambassador for the Eastern High School athletic department each time he steps on the field."

Outside of Football, Kris participates in a program at Eastern called The Best Buddies program in which he gets to meet with other athletes around the community. In his free time, Kris enjoys to live each day as if it were to be his last. He enjoys spending time with family and friends as well as being outdoors, specially at the lake. Kris says his next adventurous goal is to go sky-diving.

After high school, Kris plans to attend college in pursuit of a degree in Fire Science with hopes to become a firefighter and serve his community.

Kris will be honored as Penn Station's December 2016 Athlete of the Year Finalist by having his picture displayed on www.PennSubs.com website and in all 22 Greater Louisville Area Penn Station restaurants. He will also be entered to win a $5,000 college scholarship to be awarded in May 2017 to one of the eight 2016-2017 Athlete of the Year Finalists.

WLKY is a proud partner of Penn Station Athlete of the Year Program. To view additional information on Autumn, please visit WLKY's website or www.PennSubs.com.

To nominate an outstanding senior athlete, log on to www.PennSubs.com. Follow us on Twitter @AOM_Louisville and like us on Facebook: Penn Station Athlete of the Year Louisville.

About Penn Station East Coast Subs

Founded in 1985 in Cincinnati, Ohio, Penn Station is a "Fine Casual" restaurant that takes the service and quality of higher end restaurants and pairs it with the convenience and value of a quick casual concept. Serving a variety of hot and cold subs sandwiches as well as pairings made in-store daily such as hand-cut Fresh Cut Fries, hand-squeezed Fresh Squeezed Lemonade, and Fresh Baked Chocolate Chunk Cookies. Penn Station has more than 290 restaurants in 15 states, including Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Georgia, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia, and Texas. Markets targeted for growth include Chicago, Detroit, Kansas City, Nashville, and Richmond, as well as a number of other existing markets. For more information, visit www.penn-station.com.

###

To schedule an interview with Penn Station contact Bill Sasko at Bill@PennSubs.com