How has participating in high school athletics benefited you? Participating in High School athletics has strengthened my leadership skills. It has pushed me to be a better communicator. It has allowed me to experience highs and lows that help me in day to day life. High school athletics shapes you as a person making me a great team player.

What made you decide to play the sport for which you were named the Penn Station Athlete of the Month?

I decided to try swimming at seven years old because my friend was swimming on a rec team and it was something new to try.

Quote from Athletic Director: Grace Riddle has built a reputation as a hardworking trustworthy leader who strives to excel. She responds with courage and always challenges to herself to do her best. She is an asset to her team and our school.
